Driver Summary

General Reasoning (Cognitive)

Slower Processing
Accepts Simple & Repetitive Work

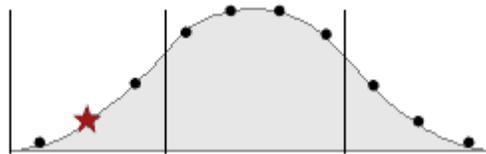

Faster Processing
Needs Intellectual Challenge

- Tom learns at a higher rate of speed than average which may cause them to become bored with many routine driving tasks
- Tends to focus on longer term and strategic issues rather than on immediate issues and tasks
- Tom's lack of focus on routine tasks could cause safety issues because of boredom and failure to pay attention to those immediate routine tasks
- May be better suited for situations where their more complex problem solving skills are valued and needed

Question: Tell me about a time when you came up with a great idea at work, but no one seemed to be interested in what you had to say. How did you handle it?

Conscientious (Organization)

Carefree
Impulsive

Detail Oriented
Dependable

- Tom tends to be reactive and easy going when it comes to schedules and details
- May miss important details which can be particularly challenging when dealing with paperwork
- May be better suited for driving situations where the schedule is not necessarily known until the last minute and Tom is expected to simply react to incoming requests that don't require the handling of a lot of details

Question: Describe a time when you forgot something important in your job and it caused you to finish the task late or inaccurately. What happened?

Tough Minded

Cooperative
Agreeable

Direct
Determined

- Tom's tends to be headstrong and determined which in some cases could create an aggressive approach to driving

- Direct approach can be helpful when necessary to point out problems or issues that need to be addressed
- If required to interact directly with customers, Tom may sometimes come across as too direct or uncompromising rather than tactful and agreeable
- Tom may have difficulty taking direction from others

Question: Describe a time when you were running late for something important and traffic was very frustrating. What happened?

Conventional (Rules)

Open to New Experience
Flexible

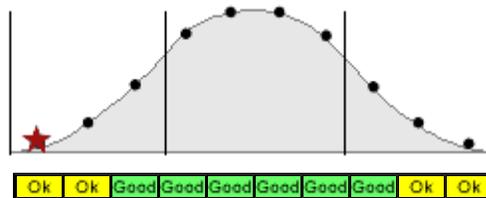

Consistent
Structured

- Tends to consistently follow driving laws, policies and safety procedures which can be very important in many driver positions
- Tom may find it difficult to deal with change and will need extra time to adapt to changes
- May be better suited for driver positions that are more predictable and structured

Question: Tell me about a time when there were a lot of changes in your job and it became frustrating. What was the situation and how did you deal with all the changes?

Extroversion

Reserved
Listener

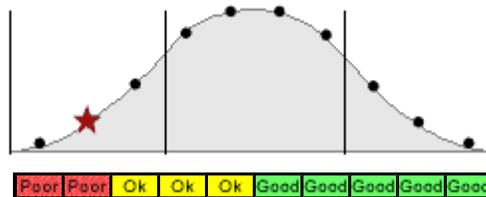

Outgoing
Talker

- Tom tends to be quiet and shy which can work well for many longer haul driving positions where they must work for long periods of time on their own
- Others may view Tom as unfriendly or aloof

Question: Describe a time when you had to work and interact with people a lot during the day. How did this affect your productivity?

Stable

Sensitive
Anxious

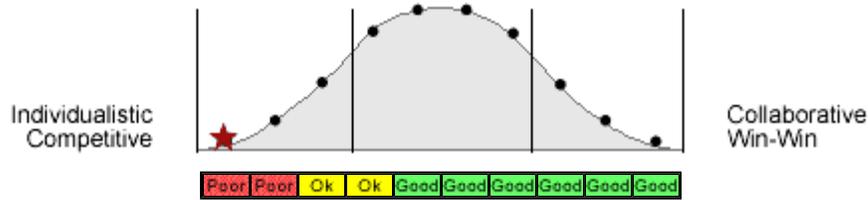

Calm
Stress Resistant

- Tom may have more difficulty dealing with highly stressful and demanding situations
- In highly stressful conditions, Tom may become nervous and anxious
- Tends to be more sensitive to customer needs

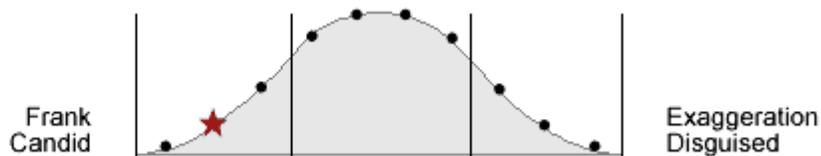

Question: Many jobs are really stressful and demanding. Tell me about a time when your job was very demanding and because you had to work so fast, you forgot to follow a policy or safety procedure. What was the situation?

Team

- Tom is generally competitive and self-confident
 - May have difficulty working on a team and being collaborative
 - Important to note that Tom may view other drivers as competitive which could lead to offensive driving versus defensive
 - It is important that Tom have an outlet for competition outside of the job given that most driver positions are not competitive in nature
- Question: Tell me about a time when you felt that you did not get the rewards and recognition that you deserved for your hard work. What was the situation?

Good Impression (Social Desirability)

- Tom's responses have been frank and open
